

BREAST FEEDING WEEK PROGRAM

Theme for the event was "Protect Breastfeeding: A Shared Responsibility."

The Breastfeeding Week Awareness Program, organized by Narayana College of Nursing and coordinated by the Child Health Nursing Department, was held from August 1st to 7th, 9:00 AM to 12:00 PM. At Narayana Medical College and Hospital in 2020. The objective was to educate the community on the health benefits of breastfeeding for both mothers and infants. The theme for the event was "Protect Breastfeeding: A Shared Responsibility." The program included expert lectures, demonstrations, and distribution of informational materials. The outcome was increased awareness and confidence in breastfeeding practices among mothers. It successfully encouraged healthier feeding habits and supported maternal and child health.

IMMUNIZATION PROGRAM

Theme for the event was "Vaccination for All: Protecting Lives."

The Immunization Awareness Program, organized by Narayana College of Nursing and coordinated by the Child Health Nursing Department, was held from March 10th, 9:00 AM to 12:00 PM. At Narayana Medical College and Hospital in 2020. The objective was to educate the community about the significance of immunization in preventing preventable diseases in children. The theme for the event was "Vaccination for All: Protecting Lives." The program included expert talks, interactive discussions, and distribution of educational materials on vaccination schedules. The outcome was an increased awareness of the importance of timely immunization and the safety of vaccines. It empowered parents to take informed decisions about vaccinating their children.

SAVE GIRL CHILD PROGRAM

Theme for the event was "Empowering Girls, Empowering the Future."

The "Save the Girl Child" Awareness Program, organized by Narayana College of Nursing and coordinated by the Child Health Nursing Department, was held from January 24th, 9:00 AM to 12:00 PM at 2020. The objective was to raise awareness about the importance of protecting the rights of the girl child and promoting gender equality. The theme for the event was "Empowering Girls, Empowering the Future." The program included educational talks, interactive discussions, and distribution of informational materials on the significance of the girl child's health, education, and safety. The outcome was increased awareness of the challenges faced by girls and the importance of their protection. It successfully encouraged community involvement in advocating for the rights of girls.

SCHOOL HEALTH PROGRAM

Theme for the event was "Health and Education: A Partnership for Life."

The School Health Program, organized by Narayana College of Nursing and coordinated by the Child Health Nursing Department, was held from April 10th 2020, 9:00 AM to 12:00 PM at Narayana Medical College and Hospital in 2020. The objective was to promote health awareness among school children and their families, focusing on physical and mental well-being. The theme for the event was "Health and Education: A Partnership for Life." The program included health screenings, educational talks on hygiene, nutrition, and mental health, and interactive sessions with children. The outcome was increased awareness of healthy habits and self-care practices. It empowered children and parents to adopt healthier lifestyles for long-term well-being.

SCHOOL HEALTH SCREENING PROGRAM

Theme for the program was "Early Detection, Better Health."

The School Health Screening Program, organized by Narayana College of Nursing and coordinated by the Child Health Nursing Department, was held from April 25th 9:00 AM to 12:00 PM. At primary school, TP Gudur, Nellore 2020. The objective was to assess the overall health of school children and identify potential health issues early. The theme for the program was "Early Detection, Better Health." The event included health screenings, vision and dental checkups, and health education on hygiene and nutrition. The outcome was the identification of health concerns among students, along with increased awareness of preventive care. It encouraged children and parents to prioritize regular health check-ups for better well-being.

SPECIAL NUTRITIONAL PROGRAM

Theme for the event was "Nutrition for Growth and Health."

The Special Nutritional Program, organized by Narayana College of Nursing and coordinated by the Child Health Nursing Department, was held from September 1st 9:00 AM to 12:00 PM at Narayana Medical College and Hospital in 2020. The objective was to educate the community on the importance of special nutrition for children, especially those with specific dietary needs. The theme for the event was "Nutrition for Growth and Health." The program featured expert talks, interactive sessions on balanced diets, and practical demonstrations on preparing nutritious meals. The outcome was an increased awareness about proper nutrition and its role in preventing health issues. It successfully encouraged families to adopt healthier eating habits for better child development.

