Enquiry

1. To receive and take cognizance of complaints made about sexual harassment of women at the workplace.

2. To conduct enquiries into these complaints, place findings before the concerned disciplinary authority and recommend penalties against the harasser in accordance with the rules and procedures laid down.

3. To ensure the safety of the complainant and witnesses during the pendency of the enquiry and till the final determination of the complaint, by advising the concerned authorities to issue warnings, suspension or any other order, if the harasser harasses or intimidates the complainant or witnesses.

4. To make efforts to ensure that the complainants and the witnesses are not further victimised or discriminated against while it is dealing with the complaint. The committee shall take action against anyone who threatens or intimidates the complainant or members of the committee. This may be in the nature of issuing a restraining order against the defendant or any other person/s.

5. To seek medical, police and legal intervention with the consent of the complainant.

6. To make arrangements for appropriate legal, psychological / emotional and physical support for the complainant if she so desires.

7. In the case of third party/ outsider harassment, with the consent of the aggrieved woman the College shall initiate action by making a complaint with the appropriate authority having jurisdiction over the offence. Further the College and the committee will actively assist and provide available resources to the complainant woman in pursuing the complaint.

8. Procedure for Registering Complaints

i. The mechanism for registering complaints should be safe, accessible and sensitive.

ii. All complaints must be brought by the complainant in person.

The following exceptions will be admitted:

a. In cases of forced confinement of the person. In such a case, brought by another person on behalf of the complainant, the committee will examine whether an enquiry, intervention or some other assistance is needed.

b. In cases of appeals where it is difficult for the complainant to travel in person to the location of the appellate body.

c. In exceptional cases, third party/witness complaints may be entertained. In such cases, the committee will ascertain whether the woman alleged to have been sexually harassed wishes to lodge a formal complaint. Once such a complaint is received the committee shall proceed to enquire into it as per the procedure specified.

iii. If the complainant wishes she can be accompanied by a representative.

iv. Complaints can be lodged directly with any member of the relevant Committee Against Sexual Harassment, or through existing channels for lodging grievances, such as the College authorities, etc. If the complaint is made through any such channel, the person to whom the complaint is made should bring it to the notice of the Committee within two working days of its receipt by her/him.

v. A complaint can be directly referred by the principal . However, in such cases, which will be exceptional, the principal will record the reasons for the same.

vi. The complaint may be oral or in writing. If the complaint is oral, it shall be reduced in writing by the Complaints Committee member receiving the complaint and the same shall be authenticated by the complainant under her dated signature or thumb impression as the case may be.

vii. All complaints made to any Committee member must be received and recorded by the member, who shall then inform the Chairperson about the complaint, who in turn shall call a meeting of the Committee.

viii. All meetings of the committee will be called by the Chairperson and a notice of at least 2 to 5 working days must be given for the meeting.

ix. Within ten days of the receipt of a complaint, the concerned Committee against Sexual Harassment must determine whether a prima facie case of sexual harassment is made out. It shall carefully consider the complaint and may hear the complainant and the defendant and/or any other relevant person to determine whether an enquiry by the Committee is to be instituted. If the Committee considers it necessary to hear the defendant at this preliminary stage it shall issue a notice to him.

x. In case a prima facie case is established the Committee shall constitute an enquiry committee with at least one member of the complainant's and one of the defendant's category. It shall have at least 50% women.

xi. No person who is a complainant, witness, or defendant in the complaint of sexual harassment shall be a member of an Enquiry Committee.

xii. Any committee member charged with sexual harassment in a written complaint must step down as member during the enquiry into that complaint.

xiii. If the Committee against Sexual Harassment decides not to conduct an enquiry into a complaint it shall record the reasons for the same in the minutes of the Committee meeting. The Committee shall make the same available to the complainant in writing.

10. Functions of the Enquiry Committee

a. The Enquiry Committee shall enquire into the complaint of sexual harassment following procedures in conformity with the principles of natural justice and gender sensitivity.

b. The Enquiry Committee shall submit a detailed speaking report to the Committee Against Sexual Harassment in which it shall detail the proceedings of the enquiry, the statements of the complainant, the defendant, other witnesses, discuss the evidence, its findings and reasons for the same and its recommendations regarding the nature of disciplinary action, if any.

11. Procedure to be followed by the Enquiry Committee:

(1) Procedure

i. During the enquiry proceedings the complainant and/or their witnesses and the defendant shall be called separately so as to ensure freedom of expression and an atmosphere free of intimidation.

ii. The complainant will be allowed to be accompanied by one representative during the enquiry.

iii. The Enquiry Committee shall strive to complete the enquiry in the shortest possible time, not exceeding three months from the date on which the complaint is referred to it. The Enquiry Committee shall be required to provide to the Complaints Committee reasons in writing for any delay in concluding the enquiry beyond a period of 3 months.

iv. Within one week of the institution of enquiry proceedings by the Complaints Committee, the Enquiry Committee shall prepare a document containing a summary of the complaint such as the location, date and time on which the incident is alleged to have occurred and shall hand over the same to the complainant and the defendant. The defendant shall be given all this information along with a copy of the Rules and Procedures of this Policy. The Enquiry Committee shall also make available to the defendant a true copy of the complaint(s) lodged by the complainant(s).

v. The Enquiry Committee must inform the defendant in writing about the material particulars of the charges made against him and he should be given a period of 5 days to respond to the charge sheet.

vi. The Enquiry Committee shall provide reasonable opportunity to the complainant and the defendant for presenting and defending her/his case.

vii. Within not more than five working days on the receipt of the first intimation of the enquiry, the complainant and the defendant shall submit, to the Convener of the Enquiry Committee in writing, a list of witnesses, together with their contact details, that she/he desires the Enquiry Committee to examine.

viii. The complainant and the defendant shall be responsible for presenting their witnesses before the Enquiry Committee. However, if the Enquiry Committee believes that the absence of either of the parties to the disputes is on valid grounds, the Enquiry Committee shall adjourn that particular meeting of the Committee for a period not exceeding five days. The meeting so adjourned shall be conducted thereafter, even if the person concerned fails to appear for the said adjourned meeting without prior intimation/valid ground.

ix. The Enquiry Committee may call any person to appear as a witness if it is of the opinion that it shall be in the interest of justice.

x. The Enquiry Committee shall have the power to summon any official papers or documents pertaining to the complaint under enquiry.

xi. The Enquiry Committee may consider as relevant any earlier complaints against the defendant. However, the past sexual history of the complainant shall not be probed into as such information shall be deemed irrelevant to a complaint of sexual harassment.

xii. The Enquiry Committee shall have the right to summon, as many times as required, the defendant, complainant and/or any witnesses for the purpose of supplementary testimony and/or clarifications.

xiii. The defendant, the complainant, and witnesses shall be intimated at least seventy- two hours in advance in writing of the date, time and venue of the enquiry proceedings.

xiv. The Enquiry Committee shall have the right to terminate the enquiry proceedings and to give an ex parte decision on the complaint, should the defendant fail, without valid ground, to present himself for three consecutive hearings convened by the Enquiry Committee.

xv. The venue of the enquiry should take into consideration the convenience and security of the complainant.

xvi. If the complainant, defendant, or witness desire to appear before the Enquiry Committee accompanied by one person of their choice, they shall communicate to the Convener of the Enquiry committee the name of that person. Such a person shall have only observer status and her/his presence during the proceedings shall be restricted to the testimony of the individual she/he is accompanying.

xvii. The identities of the Complainant and all witnesses shall throughout be protected and kept confidential by the Enquiry Committee.

xviii. The complainant(s) and the defendant, or any one person on her/his behalf, shall have the right to examine written transcripts of the recordings with the exclusion of witnesses' names and identities. Any person nominated by the complainant and/or the defendant on her/his behalf shall be only a member of NARAYANA COLLEGE OF NURSING.. No person who has been found guilty of sexual harassment shall be accepted as a nominee. The complainant(s)/defendant should inform the Enquiry committee specifically if they wish to exercise this right. The Enquiry Committee may allow access to such documents on a specific date to be intimated at least two days in advance to each of the parties concerned. At no point in time, however, can the concerned parties take these documents outside the office of the Committee Against Sexual Harassment.

xix. The complainant and the defendant shall have the right of cross-examination of all witnesses. However such cross-examination shall be conducted in the form of written questions and responses via the Enquiry Committee only. The defendant shall have no right to directly cross examine the complainant or her witnesses

xx. The defendant/complainant may submit to the Enquiry Committee, a written list of questions that he/she desires to pose to the complainant/witness. The Enquiry Committee shall retain the right to disallow any questions that it has reason to believe to be irrelevant, mischievous, slanderous, derogatory or gender-insensitive. Any behaviour, verbal or otherwise, on the part of the defendant or his nominee, that is designed to intimidate or subject the complainant or her witnesses to mental and physical trauma, can lead the Committee to recommend disciplinary action against the defendant.

xxi. All proceedings of the Enquiry Committee shall be recorded in writing. The record of the proceedings and the statement of witnesses shall be endorsed by the persons concerned in token of authenticity thereof.

xxii. All persons heard by the Enquiry Committee, as well as observers/nominees, shall take and observe an oath of secrecy about the proceedings to protect the dignity of the complainant and the defendant. Any violation of the oath of secrecy may invite penalties.

Exception: A complainant has the right to go public about the complaint of sexual harassment if she so desires. If the Complainant goes public before filing the complaint with the Committee Against Sexual Harassment, the same shall not prejudice the Committee members. Once a complaint has been given to the Committee, the complainant should preferably not go public till the enquiry is completed, unless there are compelling reasons for her to do the same.

xxiii. The members of the Enquiry Committee shall maintain confidentiality about the proceedings conducted by them.

xxiv. If the complainant desires to tender any documents by way of evidence, the Enquiry Committee shall supply true copies of such documents to the defendant. Similarly, if the defendant desires to tender any documents in evidence, the Enquiry Committee shall supply true copies of such documents to the complainant.

xxv. In the event that the Enquiry Committee thinks that supplementary testimony is required, the Convener of the Enquiry Committee shall forward to the persons concerned a summary of the proceedings and allow for a time period of seven days to submit such testimony, in person or in writing, to the Enquiry Committee.

xxvi. Nothing precludes the Complaints Committee from taking cognizance of any new fact or evidence which may arise or be brought before it during the pendency of the enquiry proceedings. If a new fact or evidence is brought to the notice of the Committee Against Sexual Harassment after submission of the Enquiry Report to the appropriate disciplinary authority, then in the event of the constitution of the reconvened Enquiry Committee, at least half of the members of the Enquiry Committee shall be those who originally enquired into the said complaint.

xxvii. The Enquiry committee shall be sensitive to the covert, private and insidious nature of Sexual Harassment and shall take into account that often the aggrieved woman may not be able to submit/ present direct or corroborative evidence.

xxviii. The Enquiry committee shall not permit any evidence or examination based on the aggrieved woman's character, personal life, conduct, personal and sexual history.

xxix. The Enquiry committee shall take note of the respective socio-economic positions of the parties, their hierarchy in the respective organization / workplace, the employer- employee equations and other power differences while appreciating the evidence.

xxx. The Enquiry committee shall, inform the complainant/s, that she may give her evidence in writing provided that she makes herself available for examination by the defendant on the same, unless the alleged victim of Sexual Harassment opts to give her evidence orally.

xxxi. The Enquiry committee shall inform the complainant/s that she may give her answers to questions of a sensitive nature in writing at the enquiry proceedings during cross examination.

xxxii. All information received in the course of the examination and enquiry into a complaint of sexual harassment shall be held in trust by the concerned Committee Against Sexual Harassment and the same shall not be made available pursuant to an application under the Right To Information Act, 2005. Such information shall constitute an exception under Section 8 (e) of the Right To Information Act, 2005, as the same is held by the Committee Against Sexual Harassment in a fiduciary relationship and thenon disclosure of the same will not against public interest. To the contrary disclosure of such information may endanger the life or physical safety of the complainant or any of the witnesses. An exception to this Rule will be when the complainant herself applies for information under the Right to Information Act, 2005.

2. Enquiry to be completed within 90 days: - The enquiry shall be completed and the Enquiry Report submitted to the Committee Against sexual Harassment within a periodof 90 days from the date on which the enquiry is commenced. In the event of any delay in submission of the Enquiry Report the reasons for the same shall be recorded in writing.

14. Findings of the Enquiry Committee:

i)(a) After concluding its enquiry, the Enquiry Committee shall submit a detailed and reasoned written report of its findings to the Chairperson of the relevant Committee Against sexual Harassment. The enquiry report shall specify the details of the charge(s) against the defendant, the statements made and evidence presented in the enquiry anda discussion of the reasons upon which the findings arrived at by the Enquiry Committee.

(b) No observations regarding the work and behavior of either the complainant or defendant shall be made which are not related to the alleged act of sexual harassment. However, the Committee may consider as relevant any earlier complaints of sexual harassment against the defendant.

ii) Upon the completion of an enquiry the said Committee may by a detailed andreasoned order pass any of the following orders:

(a) If the Enquiry Committee finds no merit in the complaint, it shall write to the Chairperson of the Committee Against Sexual Harassment giving reasons for its conclusions. The concerned Committee may then dismiss the complaint which was subject of the Inquiry.

(b) If the Enquiry Committee find the complaints proven on a balance or probabilities it shall give a detailed and reasoned finding to that effect.

(c) In the event that the Enquiry Committee finds the defendant guilty of sexual harassment, it shall also recommend the nature of disciplinary action to be taken taking into consideration the gravity of the offence of which he has been found guilty and the impact on the complainant. It shall also recommend whether after disciplinary action has been taken, the disciplinary authority should publicise the identity of the offender, the misconduct and the disciplinary action taken.

15. Report of the Enquiry Committee

i) The report of the Enquiry Committee shall be deemed to be an inquiry report under the Conduct Rules, or any other rules governing the organisation.

ii) Within 5 working days of the receipt of the report of the Enquiry Committee, the Chairperson of the Committee Against Sexual Harassment shall convene a meeting. Each member of the Committee Against Sexual Harassment shall have the right to access the entire enquiry proceedings, or any part thereof. The Committee Against Sexual Harassment will discuss the Report and recommendations for disciplinary action, if any, by Enquiry Committee. Within two working days of the adoption of the report of the Enquiry Committee, the Chairperson of the Committee Against Sexual Harassment shall forward the Enquiry Report, together with a summary of the opinions of the members of the Committee Against Sexual Harassment (including dissenting opinions) to the Disciplinary Authority..

16. Action to be taken by Disciplinary Authority

i) Upon receipt of the Enquiry Report the disciplinary authority will promptly act on the Enquiry report. If the disciplinary authority disagrees with or wishes to modify the recommendations made by the Committee Against Sexual Harassment it may do so by recording the reasons in writing. The same shall also be communicated in writing to the concerned Committee Against Sexual Harassment.

ii) A copy of the Enquiry Report shall be given by the disciplinary authority to the complainant and the defendant.

iii) The disciplinary authority shall however take disciplinary action only after giving the defendant an opportunity to reply to the findings of the Committee Against Sexual Harassment through an oral or written representation in accordance with the service rules and principles of natural justice.

v) No person accused of an act of Sexual Harassment under this policy shall be part of the decision making process referred to in this section.

17. APPEAL:

The complainant and the respondent shall have the right to appeal if they are dissatisfied with the decision of the concerned Committee Against Sexual Harassment or the disciplinary authority.

18. Redressal

i) The Committee can ask for the suspension/ transfer of the alleged harasser from his official position, during the pendency of the enquiry if his presence is likely to interfere with the enquiry.

ii) The victim of sexual harassment will have the option to seek transfer of the perpetrator or their own transfer where applicable.

iii) The Head of the institution upon receipt of the enquiry report shall refer the same to the Governing Body or any other appropriate body and institute disciplinary action on the basis of the recommendations of the concerned Committee Against Sexual Harassment.

iv) The disciplinary action will be commensurate with the nature and impact of the sexual harassment.

19. Penalties

1). Any member of the College staff, service provider, resident, found guilty of sexual harassment shall be liable for disciplinary action.

2). The penalties listed below are indicative, and shall not constrain the College authorities from considering others, in accordance with the rules governing the conduct of all members of the College.
