STRATEGIC PLAN FOR 2024-2029

At Narayana College of Nursing, a strategic area refers to a specific focus or domain—such as faculty development, student engagement, or clinical partnerships—identified as crucial for advancing the college's mission and enhancing the quality of nursing education.

The action plan at Narayana College of Nursing outlines specific steps, and responsibilities for achieving the goals set in the strategic areas, ensuring that all initiatives are actionable and aligned with the college's objectives.

A short-term plan at Narayana College of Nursing includes immediate objectives and activities designed to address current challenges or opportunities, typically focusing on a timeframe of one academic year or less.

The long-term plan at Narayana College of Nursing outlines broader goals and initiatives aimed at sustaining growth and innovation over several years, guiding the college's direction in areas like curriculum development, facility upgrades, and community outreach.
